Guidelines for Slavic Scholarship Application
For Academic Year 2012-13

Eligibility: You must meet all of the criteria below in order to be eligible for a Slavic Scholarship. Otherwise your application will not be considered.

1) You must have declared a Slavic or a Russian major before you submit this form;

OR

You must have applied for a study abroad program in or through our department for Summer 2012;

AND

2) You must register for at least one of the following qualifying courses or programs in Fall 2012:
   a. a Polish, Russian, Ukrainian or Slavic course in the Department of Modern and Classical Languages, Literatures and Cultures
   b. a relevant study abroad program
   c. another course which is a requirement for the Slavic major.

The committee will look especially favorably on the applications of students who have helped out with the Slavic Club or departmental activities.

Application Deadline: Monday, March 26, 2012
Please submit your application to Drs. Laura Kline or Alina Klin.

Required Materials:
1) Transcript (unofficial will be accepted)
2) Application Form

Optional Submission:
You may submit a typed statement indicating that you are in need of financial support in order to continue work on your Slavic or Russian major. Students with special financial circumstances will be given additional consideration for the scholarship, although scholarship awards will not be made on the basis of financial need alone (they will be made primarily on the basis of academic performance).
