

ENGLAND

University of Salford Exchange

Fall/Winter Semester Exchange

Program Goals

University of Salford is located in the heart of Manchester, England's third largest city. The greater Manchester Area, one of England's major urban center, offer both city living and easy access to the English countryside, historic landmarks, and many cultural attractions. With it's reputation for real-world teaching and ground-breaking research, there is no better place to study that the University of Salford. Located less than one and a half miles from the city center, Manchester; students are located right on the doorstep of big-city fun, diversity, and opportunity.

Students from any Wayne State college or school are eligible to apply provided their plans are approved by the department where they expect to earn their degrees. WSU students are able to take courses in International Relations, Political Science, Contemporary History, International History, and Contemporary Military History. The exchange can last either one or two semesters, although students strongly are urged to consider staying for two semesters if possible.
